Rereading the Book Together

Reread the story together. Exaggerate all the rhyming words as you take turns reading them.

Fun with Words

Say the name of a character from the story and ask your child to try to remember which words that character rhymed. For example, if you said Nat, your child would say tree and me.

More Learning

Play Rhyme Time with your child. Think about your pets and/or people you know, and have fun creating rhymes for them, such as wet and pet; bunny and funny.

Everyone likes to rhyme!
