Pen Hen is making a hat.

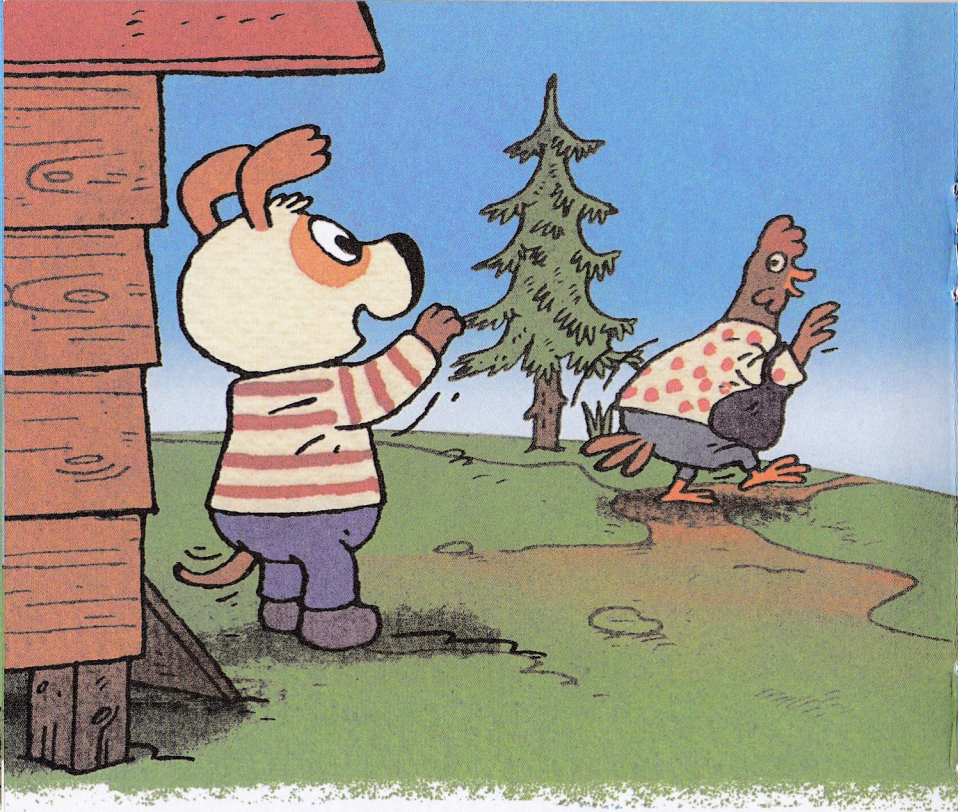

Pen Hen runs out of yarn.

Pen Hen will get more yarn.

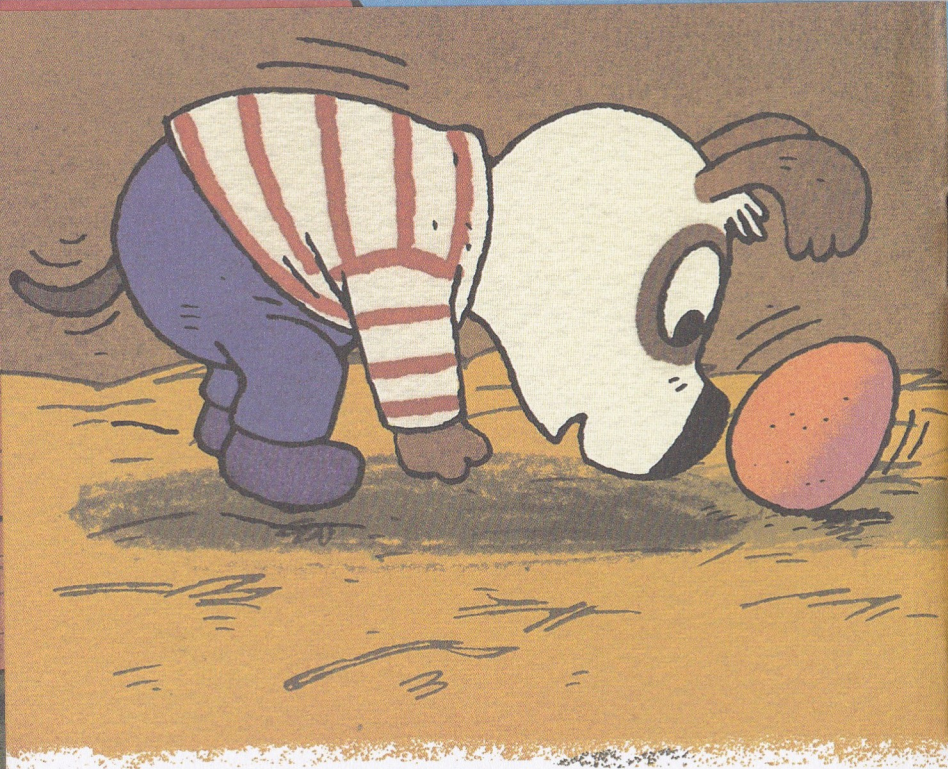

Pen Hen asks Tug the Pup to keep an eye on her new egg.

Tug the Pup is in charge!

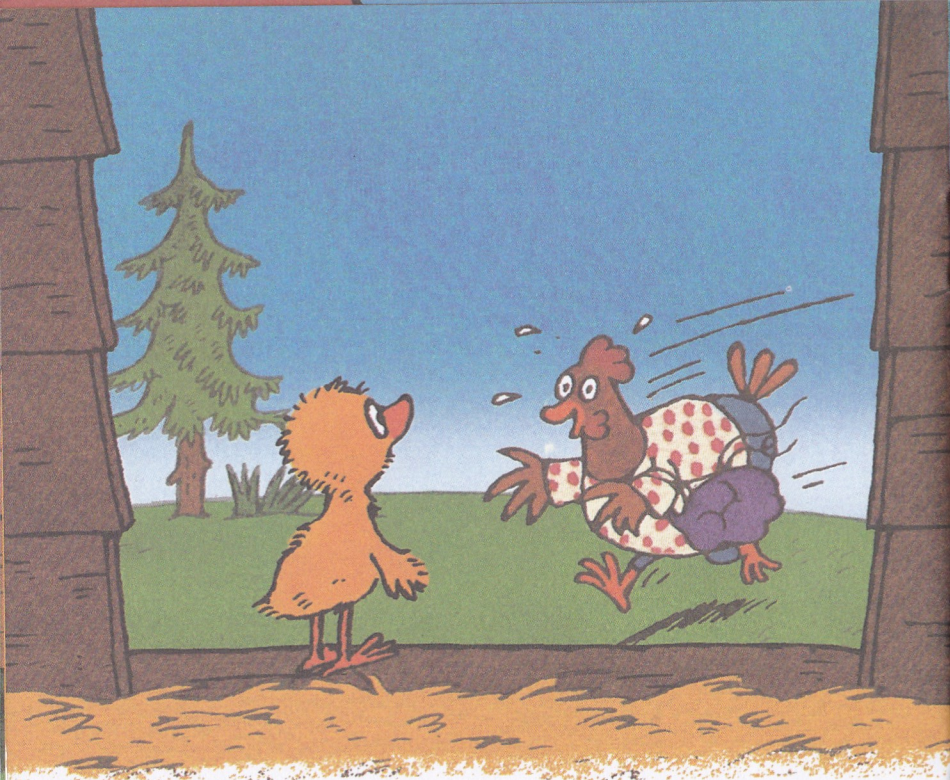

Tug the Pup wants to play.

Tug thinks the egg is a ball.
He plays with it.

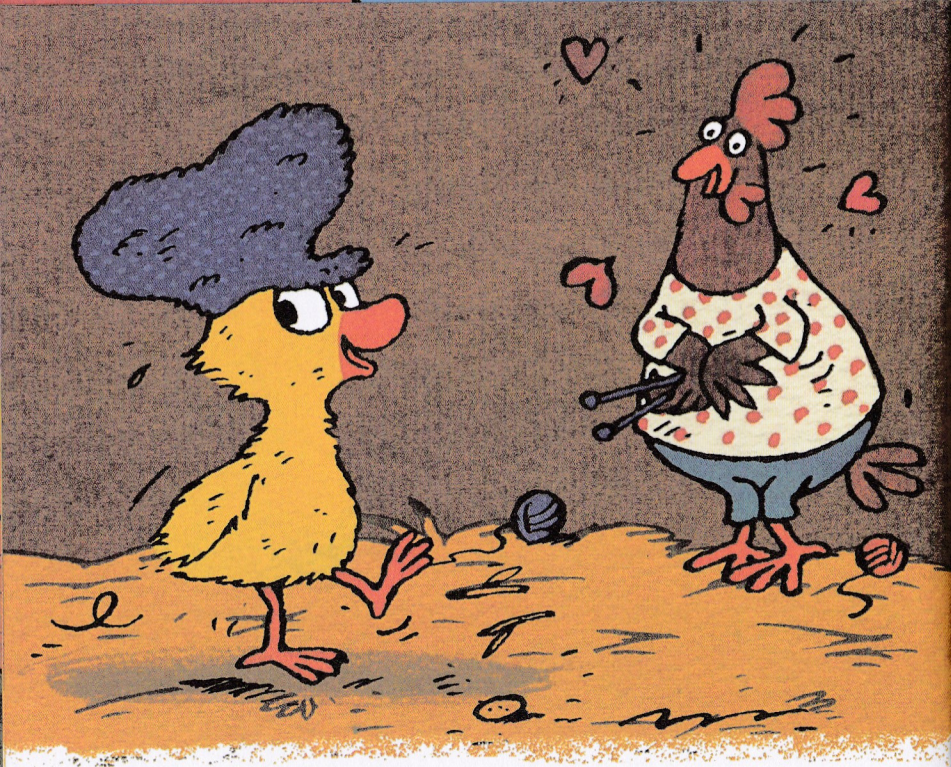

Peep! The egg cracks open.

Pen Hen is back.

“My new baby chick!” says Pen Hen.

Pen Hen knits a hat
for the new chick.

PARENTS' CORNER

Rereading the Book Together

Reread the story with your child. Pause every time you come to the name Pen Hen and have your child read the words “Pen Hen” aloud. Ask: Was Tug the Pup a good babysitter? Why or why not?

Fun with Words

Pen Hen asks Tug to “keep an eye on” the egg. Talk about what that expression means. Take turns incorporating this expression into made-up stories.

More Learning
