A Bear and His Bananas

Once upon a time, there was a bear that lived in a cave. He liked eating bananas. There was a monkey who liked eating bananas, too.

The monkey wanted the bear's bananas for himself. So he planned to steal the bananas as the bear slept.

What did the monkey like?

But he couldn't touch the bananas because the bear hid the bananas under his body while he was sleeping.

He thought for a bit. Then he had a good idea. "Maybe Ms. Mosquito can help me." He smiled.

Who could help the monkey?

Great job!

Hooray! You got one fish for the monster!
