They continue their travels. They see mountains and valleys. The scenery is beautiful.

Pre-Reading

If you were going on a trip, how would you like to travel there?

An American Road Trip

Joe and his family went on vacation to America this summer. They took a road trip across America. They drove along the interstate. Their trip began at the airport. They arrived on time with their passports and got on the plane.

After arriving in America, the family got a car and started their road trip. They saw a lot of beautiful scenery. Joe's dad drove a lot every day. They stopped often to see interesting attractions.

They even went camping! Camping was Joe and his sister's favorite part of the trip. They put up a big tent in the forest. Joe's mom started a campfire, and they roasted marshmallows.

around Times Square. Now they are planning their trip for next year!

Finally, they reached their destination, New York City! New York was busy and exciting. There were many famous landmarks. The family enjoyed the Statue of Liberty the most. They also loved walking

Dear Grandpa,
We will have a good time in America.
The plane (depart, departs) on Monday.
We will go sightseeing at many attractions.
When we (get off, gets off) the bus, we will visit a big museum that has lots of odd things. The interstate (connects, connect) the big cities to each other. We will see beautiful scenery along the way. We will (stop, stops) at campsites to sleep at night.
We will (make, makes) a campfire at the campsite and eat marshmallows.
We all miss you a lot.
Love,
Maggie and Cindy

What can we learn from the letter?

- The whole family will enjoy the road trip across America.
- They will go sightseeing at a lot of attractions.
- There will be nothing to see along the way.
- The family will make a campfire at the campsite.
