

MAD LIBS™

A LETTER FROM GEORGE

Hello, my fellow _____ in 2020, it's me, George Washington, PLURAL NOUN

the first _____. I am writing from (the) _____, where OCCUPATION A PLACE

I have been secretly living for the past _____ years. I am concerned by the _____ state of affairs in America these days.
NUMBER

ADJECTIVE

It seems that your politicians are more concerned with _____ one another than with listening to the VERB ENDING IN "ING"

_____ of the people. When we declared our independence
PLURAL NOUN

from (the) _____, we set forth on a/an _____ path
A PLACE ADJECTIVE

guided by the voices of the everyday _____. If we're going to keep _____, then we need to learn how to respect all
PLURAL NOUN

VERB ENDING IN "ING"

_____. Don't get me wrong; we had _____ problems
PLURAL NOUN ADJECTIVE

in my day, too. Benjamin Franklin once called me a/an _____ NOUN

and kicked me in the _____. But at the end of the day, we were able to _____ in harmony. Let us find that _____ VERB ADJECTIVE
PART OF THE BODY

spirit once again, or else I'm taking my _____ off the quarter!
PART OF THE BODY